Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks of U.S.A. A Fraternal Organization EXALTED RULER'S MESSAGE

Brothers All,

As we move into December, I hope all is well and your Thanksgiving was a day of joy and of giving, thanks for all the things we are grateful for.

I would like to congratulate all my officers for a great job on our Ritual win in the District. Having accomplished this feat in front of our own District Deputy Dan Maloney at his Home coming was a proud day. Special thanks to our Coach, Chuck Bolin. We will be representing the District in February in the State Competition.

November 5th was an exciting day here at the lodge. The annual Breeders Cup was held. Danny G. and his committee once again did an outstanding job, along with so many others here at this Lodge willing to help with the races. To our elite jockeys, you all were winners that day. Thank you all.

Veteran's Day Parade this year was held on November 6th. Thanks to all the ladies and men who participated in the march. Thanks to Bob S., Roy Mc., Mike M. and the Veterans Committee. You are the best "Veterans Committee in the Country".

Fall Conference was held November 12-13th in Long Branch. It's great to have all the Lodges and members together with one common goal. ELKDOM! Friday was theme night. It's great time to witness and participate in the show. Once again the South Central District won the Trophy. Next year we are going for a three-peat. Thanks to Carol M., Jane F. and Liz R. for a great show once again.

November 20th was one busy day. In the morning, we started with the Hoop Shoot Contest at Croydon Hall. Congratulations to Rich C. and all members who came out to support this event. After this we headed back to the Lodge for SCC Thanksgiving Party. The smile on the faces of the kids and Winfield dancing was priceless. To Nick F. and his crew helping in the kitchen and servers you show why this is a Great Lodge. No sooner had everyone cleaned up the back room it was filled once again with the NASCAR Party. Amazing. Boy what a crowd. Rich C., this was a huge undertaking this year. To start this and have response it had is a testament to your dedication and work ethic. Congratulations.

Bert Revill

November 22nd was a proud day at the Lodge. We hosted and honored the First Responders from Middletown. Four gentlemen were honored and presented with award for their selflessness and courage to our community. An important part of this evening was the fact their families and friends were able to see their efforts recognized.

Thanks to Committeeman Scharffenberger, Chief Oches and Deputy Chief Weber for attending. Thanks to Al Smith for coordinating this evening, the kitchen crew and special thanks to Darrren Scwedes for this help. It was great night for all.

If you haven't been to the Lodge lately come down during the Holiday Season. See some old friends, meet some new members and just have a good time. Come see the completed Courtyard. Thanks to the efforts of the Boy Scouts, especially Dan Rheinhardt. Dan will be receiving his Eagle Scout Award because of his hard work. Special thanks to Jim Davis of Whirl Construction for his donations of the benches. Also to Jim McConnell and Ed Foster, thank you for your help.

Come to our next meeting and see what's happening or sponsor a new member. My last class will be held in February.

God Bless one and all. Have a safe and Happy Holiday Season.

Honor the Past by Building the Future,
Bert Revill

FIRST RESPONDERS DINNERS

On November 22nd, we held our "First Responders Dinner" honoring those who work or volunteer in our community. At this dinner, we were proud to honor two policemen, an E.M.T. and community service worker. All of which were brought to our attention by their peers and supervisors, as someone they went above just doing the normal duties of their job. The dinner honoring these men was a great success and meeting them and their families was truly an honor for me.

It was well attended by the lodge and I would like to thank so many people for helping me make it such a success, starting with our E.R. Bert Revill, our Chaplain Dan Goodbody and Loyal Knight Mike Brandine for all their assistance at the dinner, but I could not have accomplished this huge undertaking if not for the help of so many others that instructed me on what to do, as well as doing all the kitchen work that made this event special.

Thank you so much to Dan and Carol Maloney, your knowledge of these events is priceless. To Don Anderson, Mike Dickie, Rich Centanni, Nick Giuriceo and Nick Figaro, you guys just went so far beyond helping me out at this event, I can't thank you all enough... Thank you again and I'll see everyone at the next event.

I'm just saying, Al Smith, Esq.

I would like to thank all those members who showed up Saturday, November 19th to deliver Thanksgiving baskets for "Middletown helps its own". The Christmas baskets and toys will be delivered on Saturday, December 17th at 8:00 am.

THANK YOU

On behalf of my family and myself, I would like to thank everybody who attended the Elk of the year dinner on Oct. 1st. It was a very enjoyable evening that I will cherish. Thank you to Mike Dickie for hosting and organizing it. Thank you to Carol and Danny for their contributions and to Mike Parlis, Jr. and his kitchen crew for a great meal and all others who helped.

As I said on accepting this award, no one person earns this by himself, it is the culmination of the efforts of countless people. I am grateful to lodge for affording me the opportunity to take part in the great work that is done here. Thank you Mike Dickie for your confidence and friendship.

Nick Giuriceo

TO: THE SOUTH CENTRAL DISTRICT

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all who came out on such a stormy night, October 29th for my homecoming. I especially thank all the lodges who participated in the competition and Chuck Bolin and his team of ritual officers who evaluated each one of the contests.

I would further like to acknowledge the great cooperation of secretaries, treasurers and committee chairmen, as I made my pre-visits to the lodges. The grand lodge is well aware of the work being done in the South Central District, to promote Elkdom in our communities.

The theme party at the mid-winter was a great success thanks to all who so enthusiastically joined the producers and directors of this event. The lodge participation was fantastic and the efforts of Carol, Jane and Liz were well rewarded. I feel the armed forces were very impressed with Mike, Nick Rich and Donny. Kelly as Lady Liberty kept freedom's light burning and suds as Uncle Sam made it clear what a big country we are. I don't think there ever was a George M. Cohan who could trip the light fantastic like Hank, Lou and Sharon carried the names of the five signers of our declaration of independence and the flag wavers and the firecrackers, especially Bert really brought up the rear. Again, South Central District, I am very proud of you.

Dan Maloney, D.D.

Madame President's Message

Hello Ladies,

Hope all had a good time at November's Cooking Class. Thanks to Carmello for doing Thanksgiving sides. Thanks go out to all who marched in the Veteran's Day Parade and to the ladies who made salads. We also cooked the day before Thanksgiving, a big thank you to Liz Revill, Ginger Smith and Carol Goodbody.

Well it's the holidays again and almost a New Year. We have a few things coming up in December. Our holiday party is December 10th always a good time with Randy Smith as Santa and with his elves, Carol Maloney and her songs.

Kay Woods and her gals will have the trees up early in the month. There will be no cooking class in December. Our next meeting will be December 28th. New Year's Eve Party on the 31st. Hello 2012.

January, we will be having a country dance, more information to come and we also have steel bingo on the 29th. We just jump right in.

I want to wish everyone a happy and healthy holiday and new year.

"Always Remember to be kind to one another"

Nancy Brandine
