As we go to press, Cornhole Tournament on July 30th and D.D Jewel Investiture on July 31 st are coming up. August shapes to be a very busy Month! "SCC POKER RUN" on August 7th,

An Open Letter to All Elks, Please read!

Dear Friend,

I don't think you knew me. I was your neighbor's kid you never really got to know. I was the neighbor who came home some weekends in a Reservist or National Guard uniform. I joined the military, never intending to be a hero; I just wanted to serve my country. Maybe you heard that I was eventually deployed to Iraq, to Afghanistan, one of those countries where it's hard to tell the folks who hate America from those who cherish the freedom we've helped to bring. Anyway, as you might have heard, I never made it home.

I never thought my life would end in a foreign land, never thought I'd be called a "Fallen Hero." I just wanted to finish school. I wanted to raise a family. I wanted to see my son graduate. I wanted to be at my daughter's wedding. But I traded those tomorrows proudly because I felt my being there, protecting the freedoms of those who can't do it on their own, was important.

Can I ask you a favor? On Sunday, September 25th, some of those who still wear the uniform are going to be running through town and they'll stop at a "Hero Marker" with my name on it. Could you spare 45 minutes to be there? I would hate for my family to be there all alone.

Thanks.

I'm organizing the South Central District mile markers. It will take approximately 1 hour out of your day. The markers are from Deal to the Vietnam Veterans Memorial by PNC Art Center. In our district, we have 38 mile markers, the start time is about 11 am and the last time is 5 pm. I would like to have as many elks as possible to stand with the family members that have lost someone. If you are interested, please contact me so I can start assigning members to the markers. If you would like more information, you can visit the website at www.njrunforthefallen.org
