

M'town Elks hosted fluke tourney

The Middletown Elks Lodge No. 2179 hosted its 13th Annual "Ray Bryke" Fluke Tournament this past Saturday, July 19.

The boating event began bright and early at 6 a.m. with about 60 vessels gunning for the grand prizes.

Awards included $5,000;

$2,500; $1,500; and $1,000, as well as additional prizes.

Prizes were awarded at the Elks' lodge in Belford.

Middletown Elks Francis Corridon, Phil Kaylor and Brian Boyce organized the event.

Winners included captains Kevin Meyerhoff, for first place; J.R. Santos, in second place; Charlie Parker, for third place; and Michael Wells, in fourth place.

The Elks Bonus prize of $150 went to Jimmy Davis, and Sandy Betze was awarded $100 for having the largest Sea Robin.

The Middletown Elks

will host the fluke tournament again next year, and look forward to any and all entries.

This year's entry fee was $75.

For more information, visit: www.middletownelks2179.org.

—Melissa L. Gaffney