

Capt. Kevin Meyerhoff, (above, from left), Capt. Charlie Parker and Exalted Ruler, Middletown Elks, Michael Parulis Jr. enjoyed a day of fishing at the 13th Annual Fluke Tournament.

13th Annual 'Ray Bryk' Fluke Tournament held

MIDDLETOWN — This year's Middletown Elks Lodge No. 2179 Ray Bryk Annual Fluke Tournament was held on July 19. The tournament netted a total of 60 boats going after the big prizes.

There were a number of prizes to win from the Elks: $5,000, $2,500, $1,500 and $1,000 — to name a few.

The boats left the dock at 6 a.m. and the scales were open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. and by 7 p.m. the awards were given out back at the Elk's Middletown Lodge in Belford. The entry fee was $ 75. The members who run this event from the Elks are Francis X Corridon, Phil Kaylor, and Brian Boyce.

See FLUKE • page 17 •

This Tournament is an annual event, so if you missed it this year, be sure you watch out for it next year at this time so you can show what a pro you are.

This Years winners are as follows; 1st Place ($5,000), Capt. Kevin Meyerhoff; 2nd Place ($2,500), Capt. J.R. Santos; 3rd Place ($1,500), Capt. Charlie Parker; 4th Place ($1,000), Capt. Michael Wells; Elks Bonus ($150); Jimmy Davis, Largest Sea Robin ($100), Sandy Betze.

The Middletown Elks 2179 would like to thank all of entries, and maybe next year, it could be you.