Middletown Elks bring cheer to veterans

MIDDLETOWN — On Dec. 18, the Middletown Elks Veterans Committee loaded up their sled and headed over to Keansburg to the Laurel Bay Health & Rehabilitation Center to play bingo with the veterans and their friends.

The committee passed out new lodge sweatshirts to every player, plus handed out over $300 in winnings. The crowd at Laurel Bay played some eight games in all. Over 50 in attendance were also treated to cake and ice cream from the Elks. Chairman of the Veterans Committee, Bob Santoro, said the Elks just wanted to make the residents them forget about their problems for a few hours and enjoy some new company for a while. To make them laugh was easy, Santoro said, with the elves he brought with him from the lodge.
