

Current Issue:

Elks 'boogey' while raising money

The Courier, October 9
Posted: 10/10/08

On Saturday, Sept. 27, the Middletown Elks Post No. 2179 hosted an "80s dance" to raise money for a local organization.

"Diamond D Jayz" provided music to a crowd that rocked the house, according to the Elks.

Todd and Zora Syrdale coordinated the event to raise money for IMPACT, a Middletown-based organization that works with children who have autism.

More than $5,000 was donated to the group, as well as several private donations.

Exalted Ruler Michael Parulis Jr. said the event went over very well, and that many people cannot wait until the next occasion. "It's always a lot of fun when we come here," he said. "This place just has a great bunch of people who do a lot of good things for others."

Todd Syrdale, who is the chairman of the Elks Special Children's Committee, and members of the Elks thanked all who attended.

Click on picture to Zoom

Courtesy Bob Santoro

Blog: Inside Clamdigger

Blog: Read All About It

Blog: Sableminded

Blog: In Bits and Bytes

Courier YouTube

The Courier store

LEGALS

Back

— Melissa L. Gaffney

Google™

Web The Courier

Advertisement

Advertisement

