M'town Elks announced scholarship awards

MELISSA L. GAFFNEY, Senior Staff Writer
 Posted: 01/08/09

It is during hard times when generosity is needed most, but is often during those times when it is scarcest to come by.

A local community organization, however, sets its own economy year-round: The Middletown Elks Lodge No. 2179 is never in need of a bailout.

The group recently awarded what will become an annual scholarship to two Middletown High School North students this past November.

On Nov. 14, Exalted Ruler Mike Parulis Jr. and Leading Knight Mike Dickie attended the Tom Fette Scholarship Fund Banquet, where they presented the foundation with $2,500 in scholarship funds.

This money will be awarded annually in the form of a "Memorial Scholarship" and a "Blue Chipper" award. Recipients will be student athletes from Middletown High School North.

The awards for 2008 were presented to Thomas Booth and Tom Consentino during the Thanksgiving Day football game.

The funds are used to help high school graduates achieve their goals and move forward with what life has to offer next.

Elks members said they are very excited to be a part of the Tom Fette Foundation.

But the scholarship fund is not the only thing the Middletown Elks Lodge is excited about.
